

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Sarah Larson / sarah@furiarubel.com

215-340-0480

Food Drive Collects Nearly 800 Pounds of Food for Neighbors in Need

Penn Community Bank's second annual food drive benefitted food pantries throughout the region

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (January 2018) – With the help of customers, team members and the community, Penn Community Bank collected nearly 800 pounds of food to donate to needy families across Bucks County and the region this holiday season.

The “Feed A Neighbor” Food Drive aimed to fill the shelves of local food pantries and help those in need. Food was collected at all 24 of Penn Community Bank’s branches leading up to the holidays. It was then donated to the Bucks County Opportunity Council for distribution among more than 30 food pantries across the county.

PHOTO CAPTION: Renee Schoeller, (l), and Natalie Tapytkoff (r), display some of the nearly 800 pounds of food collected during Penn Community Bank’s 2017 “Feed a Neighbor” Food Drive. The food was donated to Bucks County Opportunity Council to support more than 30 food pantries across the county.

About Penn Community: Penn Community Bank holds nearly $2 billion in assets, employs more than 300 people, and offers banking, lending, insurance and investments at 24 bank branches and two administrative centers throughout Bucks County and Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. As an independent, mutual financial institution, Penn Community Bank is not publicly traded and operates with its long-term mission in mind: to help businesses grow and prosper, to provide financial resources to individuals and families throughout their lifetimes, to strengthen the local economy, and to partner with local organizations to act as a catalyst for positive growth in every market it serves.

###

