Penn Community Bank Accepting School Supply Donations

Bucks County's leading independent bank supports United Way of Bucks County's Stuff the Bus campaign

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (July 2018) – Penn Community Bank is proud to participate in United Way of Bucks County's Stuff the Bus school supply drive, offering its 23 Bucks County branches as drop off points for the annual donation drive.

Penn Community Bank branch locations will serve as collection points until Aug. 10. In addition, volunteers at Penn Community Bank Amphitheater shows on Aug. 1, 8, and 15 will accept donations of school supplies.

"We are proud to work with United Way of Bucks County to ensure that no child in need goes to school empty-handed this fall," said Todd R. Hurley, Executive Vice President and Chief Relationship Officer at Penn Community Bank.

Stuff the Bus aims to give underprivileged young people across Bucks County the access to educational supplies they need. Last year, donors and volunteers provided 2,868 kids in need with backpacks stuffed with school supplies. United Way of Bucks County expects to receive more than 3,000 requests from nonprofits, school districts, and families this year.

Supplies that are urgently needed include backpacks, pencils, binders, composition books, and more. For more information on what to donate, visit www.uwbucks.org/stuffthebus.

Penn Community Bank is a long-time supporter of United Way of Bucks County, the mission of which is to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities to advance the common good. The organization focuses primarily on programs that address three key issues: access to a high-quality education, a stable income and good health.

About Penn Community: Penn Community Bank holds more than $2 billion in assets, employs more than 300 people, and offers banking, lending, insurance and investments at 24 bank branches and two administrative centers throughout Bucks and Montgomery Counties, Pennsylvania. As an independent, mutual financial institution, Penn Community Bank is not publicly traded and operates with its long-term mission in mind: to help businesses grow and prosper, to provide financial resources to individuals and families throughout their lifetimes, to strengthen the local economy, and to partner with local organizations to act as a catalyst for positive growth in every market it serves.
