Penn Community Bank Promotes Team Members

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (September 2018) – Penn Community Bank, Bucks County’s leading independent, mutual financial organization, is pleased to announce the promotions of two team members, Georgann Berger McKenna and Dexter Lederer.

McKenna, who oversees human resources, has been promoted to Executive Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer. Previously a Senior Vice President, she has more than 30 years of experience in human resources, training, sales, and marketing in banking and real estate. She is responsible for ensuring that Penn Community Bank attracts high quality applicants and retains, develops and rewards high performing team members. She lives in Lower Gwynedd Township.

Lederer, a member of the bank’s commercial lending team, has been promoted to Vice President, Real Estate Relationship Manager II. He is responsible for actively managing a portfolio of commercial loans and serving as a resource for business owners who are seeking commercial real estate loans to help grow their business.

“We are very proud to recognize the hard work and dedication that Georgann and Dexter display every day,” said bank President and CEO Jeane M. Vidoni. “Penn Community Bank is committed to fostering a workplace culture that inspires team members to achieve their professional goals while helping our customers meet their financial goals.”

About Penn Community: Penn Community Bank holds more than $2 billion in assets, employs more than 300 people, and offers banking, lending, insurance and investments at 24 bank branches and two administrative centers throughout Bucks and Montgomery counties, Pennsylvania. As an independent, mutual financial institution, Penn Community Bank is not publicly traded and operates with its long-term mission in mind: to help businesses grow and prosper, to provide financial resources to individuals and families throughout their lifetimes, to strengthen the local economy, and to partner with local organizations to act as a catalyst for positive growth in every market it serves.
