

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Sarah Larson

sarah@furiarubel.com / 215-340-0480

Todd R. Hurley Elected Chief Volunteer Officer of Lower Bucks Region Advisory Board of YMCA of Bucks County

Penn Community Bank Chief Relationship Officer will lead advisory board for local YMCA

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (December 2018) – Penn Community Bank is pleased to announce that Executive Vice President, Chief Relationship Officer Todd R. Hurley has been elected Chief Volunteer Officer of the Lower Bucks Region Advisory Board of YMCA of Bucks County.

In this role, Hurley oversees operations of the advisory board for the Lower Bucks County footprint of the YMCA. He also represents the Lower Bucks board on the county-wide association board of YMCA of Bucks County. The new board structure is the result of a recent merger between Central Bucks Family YMCA and Lower Bucks Family YMCA that created YMCA of Bucks County. Upper Bucks YMCA also has signed an agreement to merge with YMCA of Bucks County, and leaders anticipate becoming one YMCA organization serving all of Bucks County in January 2019.

“We are grateful for Todd’s leadership on the board, as we embark on this ambitious project to fulfill our vision to serve all Bucks County families,” said Zane Moore, President and CEO of YMCA of Bucks County. “The board’s vision will be instrumental in bringing to life our bold commitment to work side-by-side with our neighbors to ensure that everyone, regardless of age, income, or background, has the opportunity to improve their health and to learn, grow, and thrive at the Y.”

With a focus on youth development, healthy living and social responsibility, the YMCA has been bringing together people in more than 10,000 neighborhoods across the nation for more than 160 years. With branches in Doylestown, Fairless Hills, Holland, Morrisville, Newtown, and Warminster, YMCA of Bucks County has seen demand for its programs and services grow significantly. Earlier this year, it launched the “For a Better

Us” campaign to raise $20 million to renovate facilities, fund financial assistance, and increase free programming that serves the community.

In his roles as Chief Relationship Officer and Executive Director of the Penn Community Foundation, Hurley is responsible for fostering close relationships with local businesses and nonprofits across Bucks and Montgomery counties.

A longtime resident of Bucks County, Hurley is active in numerous organizations, including serving as a member and past president of the Perkasie chapter of Rotary International and as a member of the boards of directors of both the Penridge Chamber of Commerce and Penridge FISH. Hurley holds a bachelor’s degree in finance from Shippensburg University and an MBA from University of Phoenix. Over his more than 30 years in the banking industry, he has directed various departments, including retail operations, facilities, human resources, marketing and lending. He lives in Perkasie.

About YMCA of Bucks County: YMCA of Bucks County is a charitable, nonprofit organization committed to strengthening communities through membership and programs that foster youth development, healthy living and social responsibility for all. Annually, the Y serves nearly 50,000 members and participants at its four member branches, four youth development centers, and nine camp locations across Central and Lower Bucks County. YMCA of Bucks County expects to provide nearly $5 million of community impact in the form of financial assistance to individuals and families in need and free programming for veterans, cancer survivors, older adults and more. To learn more visit ymcabucks.org.

About Penn Community: Penn Community Bank holds more than $2 billion in assets, employs more than 300 people, and offers banking, lending, insurance and investments at 25 bank branches and two administrative centers throughout Bucks and Montgomery Counties, Pennsylvania. As an independent, mutual financial institution, Penn Community Bank is not publicly traded and operates with its long-term mission in mind: to help businesses grow and prosper, to provide financial resources to individuals and families throughout their lifetimes, to strengthen the local economy, and to partner with local organizations to act as a catalyst for positive growth in every market it serves.

###