DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (July 2019) – Penn Community Bank is proud to announce its summer event series “Hello Doylestown,” two months of special events to introduce the community to the bank’s newest branch in the Doylestown Shopping Center on North Main Street.

The series officially kicked off Thursday, July 25 with former Phillies pitcher and current Phillies commentator Ricky Bottalico who visited the branch for a meet-and-greet and autograph session. Over 125 people attended the event.

“Hello Doylestown” will feature giveaways, community events, family fun, banking workshops, and more. The series will culminate in a ribbon-cutting ceremony in early September. Visit PennCommunityBank.com/HelloDoylestown for details about upcoming events.

“We are thrilled to open this gorgeous new branch in the middle of Doylestown, the heart of Bucks County,” said bank President and CEO Jeane M. Vidoni. “Penn Community Bank has been a long-standing partner to Doylestown-based businesses and organizations. This new location enables us to be more accessible and serve their needs even more efficiently, and we look forward to continuing to serve as a trusted financial resource for the entire Doylestown community.”

The new branch, located at 426 N. Main Street, opened to the public on July 15. It offers a 24-hour ATM and features the community bank’s fresh, new look, with a backdrop of wood textures and its bright brand colors of blue and green. A curved teller station allows customer service representatives to assist customers with transactions, digital displays highlight financial information, a community wall highlighting local organizations, and a conference rooms and offices offer private settings for customers to consult with bank team members to discuss their financial needs and goals.

In addition to the new Doylestown branch location, Penn Community Bank plays a large part in the community, supporting many nonprofits and community groups including YMCA of Bucks County, Bucks County Opportunity Center, NOVA, Youth Orchestra of Bucks County, and many more. The bank also is an active member of several local business organizations, including the Central Bucks Chamber of Commerce.
