Penn Community Bank Team Member Speaks at LBCCC Professionals Summit

Director of Building Operations & Planning Jessica Sweeney appeared as a panelist for Lower Bucks County Chamber of Commerce conference

BRISTOL, Pa. (July 2019) – Penn Community Bank team member Jessica Sweeney, Director of Building Operations & Planning, recently participated as a panelist for the Lower Bucks County Chamber of Commerce’s Professionals Summit.

Held on June 26 at the Woods Services Training Center in Langhorne, Pennsylvania, the Professionals Summit offered attendees refreshments, networking opportunities, and presentations on spreading positivity through your professional network, leveraging LinkedIn for business development, and sharpening your business tools and skills, in addition to a panel discussion.

On behalf of Penn Community Bank, Sweeney has been an active member of the Lower Bucks County Chamber for several years and currently serves on the Chamber’s Board of Directors. She and a colleague recently were recognized by YWCA of Bucks County as Women Who Make a Difference in the category of Corporate Social Responsibility for their leadership of the bank’s annual campaign for United Way of Bucks County.

A graduate of Bucks County Community College and Temple University’s Fox School of Business, Sweeney lives in Middletown Township, Bucks County.

About Penn Community: Penn Community Bank holds more than $2 billion in assets, employs more than 325 people, and offers banking, lending, insurance and investments at 25 bank branches and two administrative centers throughout
