Penn Community Bank to Open New Doylestown Branch

New location in Doylestown Borough highlights commitment to mutual, relationship banking for Central Bucks businesses, families

PERKASIE, Pa. (January 2019) – Penn Community Bank, Bucks County’s leading independent financial institution, is proud to announce the planned opening of a new branch location in Doylestown Borough in Summer 2019.

The new Penn Community Bank Doylestown branch will be located in the Doylestown Center shopping complex and will offer new and existing customers a 24-hour lobby ATM and private meeting spaces where they can discuss their financial solutions with bank professionals. Parking is plentiful and the new location is accessible by public transportation and is within walking distance of local neighborhoods and businesses.

“We constantly explore opportunities to better serve the needs of our community, to provide access to quality financial services, to strengthen the local economy, and to partner with local organizations to improve quality of life,” said Jeane Vidoni, President and CEO of Penn Community Bank. “This new location puts Penn Community Bank in the heart of Doylestown with a new, highly visible, easy-to-access location dedicated to personal and business relationship banking in the community.”

Vidoni continued, “Penn Community Bank is investing in the Doylestown community and we are excited to demonstrate what mutual banking is all about.”

With the opening of this new branch just two miles away, Penn Community Bank’s Poole’s Corner branch will be consolidated into the new location and the branch building located at the intersection of Rt. 202 & PA 313 will be closed. Poole’s Corner team members will be relocated to the new Doylestown branch to ensure that existing customers can maintain the relationships and level of service they’ve come to expect.

Current Poole’s Corner branch customers will receive regular communication throughout the consolidation process. Please stop by the branch or call our Customer Care Center at (215) 788-1234 with any questions.
