Penn Community Bank SVP Appointed to Pennsylvania Bankers Association Advisory Committee

James Fecca will serve four-year term on Deposit Advisory Committee

PERKASIE, Pa. (December 2018) Penn Community Bank, the area's leading independent, mutual financial organization, is proud to announce the appointment of Director of Deposit Services James Fecca to the Pennsylvania Bankers Association's Deposit Advisory Committee.

As a member of the committee, Fecca will serve as a technical advisor to the association and its members on retail and commercial deposit issues as well as make recommendations regarding educational and training priorities. His four-year term began December 1, 2019.

Fecca has served as Senior Vice President, Director of Deposit Services at Penn Community Bank for over two years. In his role, he is responsible for overseeing Deposit Services efforts, including digital and mobile banking, card and check services and other key functions. He has over 30 years of experience in the financial industry ranging from relationship banking and customer service to project management and software implementation.

The Pennsylvania Bankers Association, located in Harrisburg, is the state's leading banking trade association representing an expansive and diverse membership. The association offers extensive continuing education programs, government relations representation on behalf of the industry and provides numerous products and services for banks and their employees.
