Penn Community Bank SVP Appointed to Pennsylvania Bankers Association Policy Committee

James Nemecek will serve four-year term on Government Relations Policy Committee

PERKASIE, Pa. (December 2018) Penn Community Bank, the area's leading independent, mutual financial organization, is proud to announce the appointment of Director of Compliance James Nemecek to the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Government Relations Policy Committee.

As a member of the committee, Nemecek will guide overall legislative program of the association and establish policy positions and priorities on pending or proposed state legislation. His four-year term began December 1, coinciding with start of the legislative session

Nemecek has served as Senior Vice President, Compliance Director at Penn Community Bank for over two years. In his role, he draws on his expertise to advise and enforce compliance regulations on both internal and external levels. With almost 40 years in the financial services industry, Nemecek possesses an unparalleled understanding of compliance and policy issues. He began his career in the branch network of Doylestown Federal Savings & Loan Association in 1981 before moving into compliance and internal audit; and since then has gone on to work for financial organizations such as Nazareth National Bank, Fox Chase Bank and served as Director of Compliance at Accume Partners. He also worked as a Compliance Examiner with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

The Pennsylvania Bankers Association, located in Harrisburg, is the state's leading banking trade association representing an expansive and diverse membership. The association offers extensive continuing education programs, government relations representation on behalf of the industry and provides numerous products and services for banks and their employees.

About Penn Community: Penn Community Bank holds more than $2 billion in assets, employs more than 300 people, and offers banking, lending, insurance and investments at 25 bank branches and two administrative centers throughout Bucks and Montgomery Counties, Pennsylvania. As an independent, mutual financial institution, Penn Community Bank is not publicly traded and operates with its long-term mission in mind: to help businesses grow and prosper, to provide financial resources to individuals and families throughout their lifetimes, to strengthen the local economy, and to partner with local organizations to act as a catalyst for positive growth in every market it serves.
